

Scoring Guide for Journal Reflection

4 = Outstanding Effort

Well written and thoughtful reflection. Writing reflects understanding of subject matter and demonstrates the student's ability to generalize the information on a personal level.

3 = Solid Effort

Thoughtful reflection. Writing shows that the learner understands subject matter and can generalize the information on a personal level.

2 = Good Effort

Reflection seems to be more difficult for the learner. The writing shows that the learner understands the subject matter but generalization of the information to a personal experience is not clear to the reader.

1 = Some effort

Reflection is evident but hard for the reader to follow. The writing does not prove that the reader has a grasp on the subject matter. No attempt has been made to generalize the information to a personal experience.

0 = No effort

Reflection is incomplete or not turned in for a grade.
