

What's the Attitude? Survey

To open a discussion about the judgments we subconsciously make about others, first reflect on your personal attitudes about these different questions, and then mark how you think others might judge these diverse characteristics. Be aware of your own reactions and where your attitudes come from. They may be different than you think most people feel.

1. Do you think most people feel positive about couples who marry outside their race?

Yes No

2. Do you think most people feel comfortable when meeting someone in a wheelchair?

Yes No

3. Do you think most people would vote for a women president as easily as a man?

Yes No

4. Do you think most people treat a person who is overweight the same as someone who is underweight?

Yes No

5. Do you think most people feel comfortable with a person who is LGBTQ as a boss?

Yes No

6. Do you think most people feel comfortable around teenagers?

Yes No

7. Do you think most people prefer a young doctor over an older one?

Yes No

8. Do you think most people are tolerant of people of other faiths than their own?

Yes No

9. Do you think most people respond positively to advertising with a person of an unrealistic beauty standard (i.e., airbrushed)?

Yes No

