Character Education Vocabulary

Caring

Grade Six

caring [feeling concern, showing interest] exemplified [served as an example of] neglected [passed over] philanthropy [giving time, talent, or treasure or taking action for the common good] selflessness [putting others' needs before one's own]

Grade Seven

enlightened self-interest [sacrificing time and resources to the benefit of the whole, which, in turn, benefits self; what is good for the community is good for me] gratitude [thankfulness] philanthropic passion [causes or social issues one cares enough about to take action for] philanthropists [people who give their time, talent, or treasure and take action for the common good] pro-social behavior [acting in ways that benefit others] serial reciprocity [when one person gives to another, by means of time, talent or treasure, and causes a continual chain of giving to occur in a linear pattern]

Grade Eight

altruism [selfless concern for the welfare of others]
enlightened self-interest [sacrificing time and resources to the benefit of the whole, which, in turn, benefits self; what is good for the community is good for me]
empathy: [identification with and understanding of the feelings of another person] selflessness: [putting others' needs before one's own]

Courage

Grade Six

acrostic [a poem using the letters of a word as the first letter of each line of the poem] courage [bravery; the ability to confront fear or uncertainty] everyday hero [a not-famous person who uses courage to make a difference for the sake of another]
Grade Seven

courage [bravery; the ability to confront fear or uncertainty]
persevered [stuck with it]

Grade Eight

courage [bravery; the ability to confront fear or uncertainty]
SWOT analysis [Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats]

Fairness

Grade Six

barriers [something that gets in the way and separates] bias [personal judgment; a way we think about things that is formed by our experience] compromise [to come to agreement with both sides giving a little] conflict [a competitive action between two people of different viewpoints] equal [same amount or number as another] fairness [just and equitable manner]
favoritism [showing special treatment]
global [involving the entire world] impartiality [treating equal people equally] intolerance [unwilling to allow another point of view] issues [a matter in dispute]
judgment [an opinion]
open-minded [willing to listen to opposing side] partial [favoring one over another] perspective [point of view] prejudice [a judgment formed about a person or group without enough knowledge] privilege [a right granted as a benefit] progress [amount of forward movement] resolution [conflict is answered or solved] reward [something given in return for a desired behavior] boycott [refusal to have dealings until acceptable practices are enforced]
Civil Rights Movement [actions taken between 1955 and 1968 to outlaw racial discrimination] compromise [to come to agreement with both sides giving a little] conscience [a feeling of obligation to do what is good and right] cultivate [prepare for growing, as in a garden]
equal [same amount or number as another] expediency [practical; suitable for the situation]
fairness [just and equitable manner]
favoritism [showing special treatment] inequitable [unfair, not equal]
judgment [an opinion]
philanthropy [giving time, talent, and/or treasure or taking action for the common good] politic [wise and tactful for making a decision] prejudice [a judgment formed about a person or group without enough knowledge] segregation [separation of a group for different treatment] unconstitutional [not adhering to the rights guaranteed in the Constitution] vanity [excessive focus on self and one’s appearance]

Grade Eight
artisan [a skilled manual laborer who makes products that are functional and/or decorative] common good [promoting the welfare of the community; for the benefit of all] copyright [exclusive legal right to reproduce, publish, sell, or distribute the matter and form of something] developing countries [countries with low levels of material well-being] equitable [equal treatment of all concerned] fair [achieving a proper balance of conflicting interests; a fair decision]
fairness [just and equitable manner] fair trade [an organized movement that helps producers in developing countries get better trading conditions] fair use [a legal doctrine that allows, with restrictions, portions of copyrighted materials to be used without permission of the copyright owner]
global [involving the entire world] justice [exact following of a standard of what is right and proper; a just settlement of territorial claims] metaphor [comparing two unlike objects to enhance meaning, as in "clouds are like cotton candy"] producers [workers creating a product; farmers, workers, and artists] retail stores [stores that sell directly to consumers]

Honesty

Grade Six

civic virtue [positive behavior that supports group well-being]

honesty [fairness and straightforwardness in conduct] ironic [opposite to apparent meaning; used to emphasize a point]

Grade Seven

common good [promoting the welfare of the community; for the benefit of all] ethical decision-making [using a set of morals/values when problem-solving]

Grade Eight

eschew obfuscation [avoid purposely concealing the meaning of the communication] fabrication [something that is made up or created]

honesty [fairness and straightforwardness in conduct]

omission [something left out]

responsibility [following tasks to completion and being dependable for doing what you say you will do] sarcasm [ironic wit intended to cut down or point out inconsistency]

Integrity

Grade Six

apartheid [a policy of segregation and political and economic discrimination against those of non-European backgrounds]

integrity [knowing and doing what’s right; true to yourself and others] principles [code of conduct]

values [what is believed to be right; the basis for ethical action]
Grade Seven

colonial government [governing body run by the local colony, not the sovereign power; that is, Virginia's government, not England's] colony [a group of people living in a new territory with ties to the parent country, i.e., Virginia before the Declaration of Independence] imperial authority [governed by the king of England]

integrity [knowing and doing what’s right; true to yourself and others]

obstacles [something that gets in the way and blocks advancement] parson [minister of the Anglican church] overruled [set aside; didn’t enforce the judgment] resolutions [formal statements of intent voted on by a political body]

Grade Eight

abolitionist [anti-slavery activist]

integrity [knowing and doing what’s right; true to yourself and others]

philanthropy [giving time, talent, or treasure or taking action for the common good]

suffrage [right to vote]

Perseverance

Grade Six

boycott [refusal to have dealings until acceptable practices are enforced]

buyer’s remorse [regretting a purchase after the fact]

Civil Rights Movement [actions taken between 1955 and 1968 to outlaw racial discrimination]

goal [the end point to which efforts are directed] impulse spending [buying without considering the benefits and consequences] incentives [perceived benefits and costs that we consider when making any economic decision] legacy [something passed on from the past] long-term goals [plans for doing something in more than three year’s time] opportunity cost [what option you give up when you act on a decision] perseverance [to persist, even in the face of discouragement; putting forth maximum effort to always do the best you can] resolutions [firm decisions to act on a specific goal] short-term goals [plans for doing something in less than a year’s time]

Grade Seven

barriers [something that gets in the way and separates]

goal [the end point to which efforts are directed]

obstacles [something that gets in the way and blocks advancement]

perseverance [to persist, even in the face of discouragement; putting forth maximum effort to always do the best you can] persistence [continuing without change for a long period] personal best [your best effort based on your ability and opportunity]

Grade Eight

excuse [a reason not to do something] perseverance [to persist, even in the face of discouragement; putting forth maximum effort to always do the best you can]

obstacles [something that gets in the way and blocks advancement]

Respect

Grade Six

antidotes [a remedy that counteracts]

bias [personal judgment; a way we think about things that is formed by our experience]

prejudice [a judgment formed about a person or group without enough knowledge]

respect [showing regard or esteem for] sarcastic [ironic wit intended to cut down or point out inconsistency] self-respect [respect applied to one's self] stereotype [an oversimplified opinion formed by associating people with a group]

racism [belief that racial differences determine superiority]

Grade Seven

feasible [capable to carry out] implement [carry out]

respect [showing regard or esteem for]

Grade Eight

bias [personal judgment; a way we think about things that is formed by our experience] discrimination [action or treatment based on prejudice, or a preconceived opinion]

© www.learningtogive.org
diversity [variety; including people of different cultures or races] eclusion [the act of leaving out] clusion [the act of welcoming in] minorities [a part of a population that is different from others in some way] pluralism [a society in which diverse people participate] prejudice [a judgment formed about a person or group without enough knowledge]
racism [belief that racial differences determine superiority] sensitivity [awareness of the needs of others] stereotype [an oversimplified opinion formed by associating people with a group] tolerance [openness and acceptance of different views]

Responsibility

Grade Six

assumed [taken upon oneself without needing to be told] cholera [disease caused by bacteria in the intestines, usually from polluted water] responsibility [following tasks to completion and being dependable for doing what you say you will do]

Grade Seven

civic responsibility [a sense of responsibility toward the community]
common good [promoting the welfare of the community; for the benefit of all] consequences [conclusions following specific actions] dependability [reliability; can be counted on to follow through] determination [commitment to get it done] nepotism [favoritism shown to relatives]
perspective [viewpoint]
responsibility [following tasks to completion and being dependable for doing what you say you will do] values [what is believed to be right; the basis for ethical action]

Grade Eight

character [the ethical traits of a person]
civic responsibility [a sense of responsibility toward the community]
common good [promoting the welfare of the community; for the benefit of all]
consequences [conclusions following specific actions] debate [formal structure for arguing two sides of an issue] dependability [reliability; can be counted on to follow through] Emancipation Proclamation [document declaring freedom of slaves]
perspective [viewpoint]
solidarity [unity]
responsibility [following tasks to completion and being dependable for doing what you say you will do]
Union [the states joined into one body of shared government]

Self-Discipline

Grade Six

discipline [training to act according to rules] perseverance [the ability to continue with a task or plan, even when you want to quit] self-control [restraint of oneself or ones actions, such as managing anger] self-motivation [will power or initiative to begin or continue a task or activity without prodding or supervision, such as physical training] will power [the ability to begin or continue on a plan or course of action]

Grade Seven

apprentice [somebody trained by a skilled professional] commitment [determination to get something done, or to a person] common good [promoting the welfare of the community; for the benefit of all] delayed gratification [to put off immediate reward to pursue a longer term goal]
discipline [training to act according to rules]
goal [the end point to which efforts are directed] impulse control [the ability to think before acting] integrity [knowing and doing what’s right; true to yourself and others] maturity [being fully developed in body and mind, adult] perseverance [to persist, even in the face of discouragement; putting forth maximum effort to always do the best you can] patience [ability or willingness to suppress restlessness or annoyance when confronted with delay] self-control [restraint of oneself or ones actions, ie. anger] self-denial [restraining one's own wants or desires] self-discipline [acting according to how you think rather than how you feel in the moment] self-motivation [ability to start or continue a task or activity without another's prodding or supervision] self-talk [anything said to oneself for encouragement or motivation; a person's internal mental conversations]
willpower [the ability to begin or continue on a plan or course of action]

Grade Eight

commitment [determination to get something done; loyalty to a person or thing] delayed gratification [to put off immediate reward to pursue a longer term goal]
discipline [training to act according to rules]
goal [the end point to which efforts are directed]
impulse control [the ability to think before acting] integrity [knowing and doing what's right; true to yourself and others]
patience [ability or willingness to suppress restlessness or annoyance when confronted with delay] perseverance [to persist, even in the face of discouragement; putting forth maximum effort to always do the best you can] persistence [continuing without change for a long period] philanthropist [a person who gives their time, talent and/or treasure for the common good] self-control [restraint of oneself or ones actions, such as managing anger]
self-denial [restraining one's own wants or desires]
self-discipline [acting according to how you think rather than how you feel in the moment]
self-motivation [ability to start or continue a task or activity without another's prodding or supervision]
self-talk [anything said to oneself for encouragement or motivation; a person's internal mental conversations]
willpower [the ability to begin or continue on a plan or course of action]

Trustworthiness

Grade Six

acrostic [a poem structured by a word written vertically; each line begins with one of the letters of the original word]
empathy [identification with and understanding of the feelings of another person]

© www.learningtogive.org
misunderstanding [a failure to understand] promise [a statement of commitment to do or not do something specific] social capital [like a bank account of positive feelings invested with others] trust capital [many positive experiences with a friend (like doing what you say you'll do) build trust over time and cannot easily be undermined] trustworthiness [dependability; keeping a promise, or doing what you say you'll do]

Grade Seven
character [the ethical traits of a person] honesty [fairness and straightforwardness in conduct] loyalty [supports with faithfulness a person or cause] metaphor or simile [comparing two unlike objects to enhance meaning, as in “clouds are like cotton candy”] reputation [a good name; a quality of character as judged by other people in general] trustworthiness [dependability; keeping a promise, or doing what you say you'll do]

Grade Eight
advocacy [to write or speak or act in favor of a person or ideal] bias [personal judgment; a way we think about things that is formed by our experience] charitable [related to giving to the needy] community [a group with common interests and likes, or a group of people living in the same area with shared resources] dereference [public support for] exploitation [making use of something for your own advantage]
honesty [fairness and straightforwardness in conduct]
judgment [an opinion]
loyalty [supports with faithfulness a person or cause]
misunderstanding [a failure to understand] philanthropic [giving for the common good] philanthropy [giving time, talent, and/or treasure or taking action for the common good] reliable [dependable]
reputation [a good name; a quality of character as judged by other people in general]
trustworthiness [dependability; keeping a promise, or doing what you say you'll do]