

Learning to Give Grant Report

As part of our agreement, you will be asked to provide the following information about your grant-funded service-learning project [link will be provided in the award agreement].

1. Why do you value teaching service and philanthropy to your students?
2. What Learning to Give unit or lesson(s) (title and URL) did you teach with your service-learning project?
3. Describe how you used the lesson(s) before, during, or after their service.
4. Name your service-learning project.
5. Describe the service your students performed (may be direct, indirect, or advocacy).
6. How did you involve students in choice and leadership?
7. What community organization and/or issue did they impact?
8. Please copy and paste some of the student reflections on the discussions and service they performed and/or the impact on the issue and people they served.
9. How do you plan to continue beyond this project to involve students in sharing their time, talent, and treasure?

Budget Information:

1. Describe how the full amount of granted funds was spent.
2. How did the grant money facilitate student action and awareness of philanthropy?

Data:

1. Number of students involved in the project
2. Grade levels of students
3. Student ethnicity (percentages for school)
4. Free and reduced lunch (percentages for school)
5. Type of School (public, private, independent, charter, other)

As a model and inspiration for other teachers, we ask that you please share some of the anecdotal information from this report on your Learning to Give account and submit for public viewing. Go to your Learning to Give account www.learningtogive.org > login > "Edit Profile & Account" > "Tell your story."

