

Nonviolent Protest Simulation

Part 1: Identify Nonviolent Protest Simulation Topic

- List and discuss 2-3 social issues
- Identify at least 2-3 facts as evidence that the issue exists
- Identify potential solutions to selected social issues
- Discuss and evaluate social issues with your peers
- Select a nonviolent protest simulation topic

Part 2: Plan the Nonviolent Protest/Demonstration

Answer the following questions to create a plan for the Nonviolent Protest/Demonstration.

Remember this is just a simulation.

1. What day and time is your demonstration/protest planned for and why is that date important?
2. How long will the demonstration/protest last?
3. Who should participate in the protest? Who is your audience? Be specific.
4. Why is the demonstration/protest necessary?
5. What else has been done about this issue? Have there been other protests? If so, were they successful?
6. How will you ensure that your demonstration will remain nonviolent?
7. Where will the demonstration occur and why is that location important?

Part 3: Create a Mock Agenda for the Nonviolent Protest/Demonstration

Part 4: Create a visual/auditory aide for your protest. This can be a:

- Poster
- Speech
- Chant
- Signs/Artwork

Part 5: Self-Reflection

Choose 2-3 reflection questions to answer

1. What were some of the most interesting discoveries made while working on this project? About the problem? About myself? About others?
2. What were some of the most powerful learning moments and what made them so?
3. How does my solution relate to real-world situations and problems?
4. How will I use what I've learned in the future?
5. What are some ways to share this learning with parents or family?
