

Oral History Project

Listening as an act of Philanthropy

We have been discussing the importance of oral history, interviewing skills, and family traditions. Your child has prepared questions to interview a specific family member. Please allow time for a short interview.

On your phone, please have your child conduct an interview using an audio recording. After the interview they should respond to the following writing prompt.

For more information, search for "The Great Thanksgiving Listen" on StoryCorps:

<https://storycorps.org/?s=the+great+thanksgiving+listen&type=listen>

Name _____

I interviewed _____.

Choose a writing prompt to reply to on the back of this page

- The coolest thing I learned...
- Something that surprised me was...
- I enjoyed learning about...
- I liked/didn't like this experience because...
