

Mrs. Johnson's Acts of Kindness Chart

Student Name /Birthdate	Birthday Wishes	Act of Kindness	Effect of this Act of Kindness
Sally Jones 1/1/2013	Barbie Playhouse	Gave a note of thanks to the custodian	Custodian felt happy and appreciated  Helped him have a better day and do his job better. Cleaner school, healthier kids.
Jacob Jacobson 2/14/2013	Hot wheels cars and a garage to put them in	Gave a package of gum or candy to the school secretary with a note of thanks	Secretary felt happy and a little less stressed. Had a better day. Got her work done easier, didn't seem mean to the kids.
Teacher Mrs. Johnson  April 10, a long time ago!	A new Honda CRV with all the bells and whistles, for free!	Gave a new special eraser/pencil for each student to help them with their work	Kids are happy to have a new eraser, work is neater, and teacher has easier time grading papers, more time to help students.