

TEACH GENEROSITY

Anyone can be giving and caring.
We all have something to give!

LEARNING TO GIVE

EDUCATE, EQUIP, EMPOWER
K-12 YOUTH AS AGENTS FOR GOOD
IN THEIR CLASSROOMS, LIVES, AND COMMUNITIES

Learning to Give is a community foundation and YAC approved program resource.

3 EASY STEPS

1. Do this activity to help your students identify their giving passion.

Free at www.learningtogive.org/get-started/build-community

2. Teach One lesson in your classroom or with your whole school.

Free at www.learningtogive.org/teachone

3. Complete a service-learning project to connect students to community.

Inquire with your local community foundation for available grants!

Bonus: Use grade-level lessons to help students learn about the nonprofit sector. Learners will identify and investigate local and national nonprofit organizations by researching their histories, services, and target populations, as well as job opportunities.

Free lesson search at <http://bit.ly/2VToi3L>

For more information visit www.learningtogive.org or email kherrygers@learningtogive.org

