

Answers: Which Court?

1. Trial court: only trial courts have witnesses who testify.
2. Appellate court: trial courts have a single judge and appellate courts have a panel of judges.
3. Trial court: juries operate only in trial courts.
4. Appellate court: Monica is asking to have the decision imposed in the lower court set aside.
5. Appellate court: there is more than one judge deciding the case.
6. Appellate court: if a new trial has been granted, an earlier trial must have been reviewed.
7. Trial court: only trial courts have witnesses.
8. Trial court: only trial courts have evidence admitted.
9. Appellate court: more than one judge signed the decision.

