How do you define philanthropy?
Take Action for the Common Good

What are some things we can say to others to bring a smile to their faces, help them when they are struggling with a problem, or make the classroom a cooperative place?
“Whatever the problem, be a part of the solution.”
— Tina Fey

“Words Are Tools of Change

“The best way to not feel hopeless is to get up and do something. Don’t wait for good things to happen to you. If you go out and make some good things happen, you will fill the world with hope, you will fill yourself with hope.”
— Barack Obama

“There is no substitute for a good education. I say that with all due respect to the fact that we need to protect a lot of the things that we have been able to do. But the basic premise of our society is education. And if you don’t have it, you’re not going to be able to do anything.”
— Barack Obama

“I have a dream.”
— Martin Luther King, Jr.

“In a world where you can be anything, be kind.”
— unknown

“Unless someone like you cares a whole awful lot, nothing is going to get better. It’s not.” — The Lorax

“Be the change you want to see in the world.”
— Gandhi

“In the end, we will remember not the words of our enemies, but the silence of our friends.”

“Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.”
— Nelson Mandela
Service Project:

Decorate a stone with a positive quote or encouraging word and place it inside or outside of the school for others to find and get encouragement from.
