

Book Builder Rubric

Name:

Total Possible Score is 16

	4. Distinguished	3. Proficient	2. Apprentice	1. Novice
Story- Creativity and Originality: Story is creative	Story had many creative details that made the reader want to learn more.	Story had three or more examples of creative ideas.	Story had one to two creative details.	Story was not creative and did not show imagination.
Story- Did it incorporate Character Vocabulary?	Story incorporates all the character words and they're used correctly	Story contains the vast majority of character words and majority are used correctly.	Story contains some of the character words and some are used correctly.	Story is lacking majority of character words and/or majority of words are used incorrectly.
Writing-Word Choice: Correct words and details	Work used many adjectives to show ideas. Work used excellent words to paint a clear picture.	Work used many adjectives to show ideas. Work used words that took away from the meaning.	Work had few adjectives and descriptive words. Work used the same words over and over.	Work did not have adjectives or descriptive words.
Writing- Spelling and Grammar (Conventions): Correct grammar and spelling	Writer makes no spelling or capitalization errors. Writer always used the parts of speech correctly.	Writer makes less than five spelling and capitalization errors. Writer used the parts of speech correctly.	Writer makes less than ten spelling and capitalization errors. Writer sometimes used the parts of speech correctly.	Writer makes many spelling and capitalization errors. Work is hard to read

Score:

Total ___/16

Comments:

