

Character Traits

citizenship: being involved in your school and community courage: doing the difficult or right thing, even when it is scary or hard fairness: just treatment or behavior; not necessarily equal treatment, but without favoritism or less than friendship: close relationship that involves kindness and shared interests and time together gratitude: an attitude of happiness for what we have; thankful for the good things in your life honesty: telling the truth and admitting when you are wrong perseverance: working hard and continuously over time toward your goal respect: treating others the way you want to be treated or honoring that different isn't better or worse responsibility: taking care of your behavior and belongings without reminders self-discipline: having control over your actions and emotions

