

Choosing An Environmental Group to Support

Directions: After having heard all the presentations you should have knowledge about six to nine environmental groups of either local, national or international origin. From your notes and your own opinions, choose one group that you, as a consumer, would choose to support monetarily.

1. The group that I would choose to support is

2. I would choose to support this group because (include goals, missions, accomplishments and budgetary histories as support for your decision):

3. I would also support this group because I believe that:

4. I would be willing to support this group by:
