

The Core Democratic Values for Elementary Students

Life Each citizen has the right to the protection of his or her life.

Liberty Liberty includes the freedom to believe what you want, freedom to choose your own friends, and to have your own ideas and opinions, to express your ideas in public, the right for people to meet in groups, the right to have any lawful job or business.

The Pursuit of Happiness Each citizen can find happiness in their own way, so long as they do not step on the rights of others.

Justice All people should be treated fairly in getting advantages and disadvantages of our country. No group or person should be favored.

Common Good Citizens should work together for the good of all. The government should make laws that are good for everyone.

Equality Everyone should get the same treatment regardless of where their parents or grandparents were born, race, religion or how much money you have. Citizens all have political, social and economic equality.

Truth The government and citizens should not lie.

Diversity Differences in language, dress, food, where parents or grandparents were born, race, and religion are not only allowed but accepted as important.

Popular Sovereignty The power of the government comes from the people.

Patriotism A devotion to our country and the core democratic values in word and deed.

To learn more about the core values of American constitutional democracy please consult "Civitas: A Framework for Civic Education, a collaborative project of the center for Civic Education and the Council for the Advancement of Citizenship, National Council for the Social Studies Bulletin No. 86, 1991." This document may be ordered from the Center for Civic Education by calling 1-800-350-4223.

