

Fairness Definitions

Fairness is treating everybody the same.

Fairness is responding to people with what they need and deserve, even if means different treatment.

Fairness is using the same rules for everyone.

Fairness is using an impartial and just manner.

Fairness is being free from prejudice or favoritism.

Fairness is following the rules.

Fairness is listening to others to make sure you understand their thoughts and feelings.

Fairness is considering all the facts before making a decision.

