

Feedback Forum Sheet-Personal Narrative

- I. As each group member reads aloud his/her paper, think about the following questions and be ready to give the reader constructive feedback.
- II. Each listener responds to the reader by restating what the paper says and naming what is especially engaging about the narrative. This feedback helps the writer know whether s/he has communicated effectively.
- III. Use the following questions to guide the feedback discussion.
 - A. What are three details that help you participate in the experience?
 - B. What is the basic conflict/tension regarding the social issue?
 - C. How did the experience contribute to solving the issue or raising awareness about the social injustice or need?
 - D. How did this experience change or confirm the writer's attitude toward the social issue?
 - E. What did the writer discover about him/herself after working for social change?
 - F. How does the writer's experience affect your ideas, attitudes, or awareness of the social issue?
