

Fruits We Bear

Rationale for analogy:

Tree roots signify the roots of their giving which is based on their culture.

The trunk signifies the strong spiritual beliefs of each culture which support their philanthropic endeavors.

The branches represent how each of these cultural groups reach out to different branches of needs.

The apples signify the fruits, or benefits, provided through their philanthropic endeavors.

Teacher Note: If you have access to a color printer change the font color for each of the above categories before printing this out.
