

Group Work – Women’s Rights Movement

Each person in the group takes one of the tasks below and records the findings from their research. Then, as a group, answer the questions at the bottom of the page.

Video or Reading	Main points of video or reading	How is philanthropy demonstrated?
Social Activism video
Women’s Suffrage and Philanthropy reading
Opposition to Women’s Rights reading
Seneca Falls Convention reading
National Woman Suffrage Association reading
Susan B. Anthony reading
Women’s Suffrage ‘Cool Facts’ reading

Reflection Questions to discuss:

1. In the first part of the video, we hear that every person is an activist, either by our action or inaction. How can doing nothing be considered an act of social action?
2. What actions were taken during the Women’s Rights Movement that gave people the power to make a difference?

