

Honesty Dissection

In your group, discuss and brainstorm what it means to be honest. use the following prompts to guide your discussion. Be ready to share the group's most important points with the whole class.

1. What does honesty sound like, look like, and feel like?
2. What are some examples of honest behavior?
3. What words describe an honest person?
4. What are some nonexamples of honest behavior.

Star the definitions and words from above that your group wants to share with the whole class. Choose one person to report to the class.

