

Interviewing Process Questions to Consider

1. What is the name of your business and what are its purposes?
2. What does your organization do that is considered philanthropy?
3. Why do you participate in this activity?
4. Who or what influenced you?
5. How can individuals and organizations use a foundation for giving?
6. What are the characteristics of someone who helps the community?
7. What can we (students) do for this community?
8. Why is this action necessary?
9. What are the benefits to the foundation as a result of the action?
10. What kinds of benefits do the people you help receive?

