

Issues or Concerns: Brainstorming

Brainstorm needs and issues that you think need to be addressed. Complete as much of the table as you can. Some examples have been provided to get you started.

Issue or Challenge	School, Community, Nation or World	Information Resources	Audience	Format of Persuasive Writing
School auditorium not outfitted with a system for helping people with hearing disabilities	school	observation, date of building, Americans with Disabilities Act	principal, student council, school board	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> letter to the school board
Need for recreational activities for young people such as skate park, recreation center, etc.	community	local recreation department, examples from other municipalities of similar size	city council, community service groups such as Rotary, local newspaper	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> petition software presentation letter to editor
Famine in Darfur	world	United Nations	local newspaper, U.S. senator or representative, student body	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> letters to government officials letter to editor

