

Narrative Writing Assessment Rubric

POINTS	DESCRIPTION
4	In order to receive a 4-point score, the response must:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Include three details to describe your partner in the service learning project. • List three "historic" facts about life in the United States, Michigan, or the community which were mentioned in the questionnaire. • Describe two things you did with your partner during the project. • Describe what was your favorite or least favorite part of the project and explain why. • Analyze what was the need and explain why you believe the need was served or not served by the service learning project. • Use correct spelling, grammar, punctuation, and capitalization.
3	In order to receive a 3-point score, the response must:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Include two details to describe your partner. • List two "historic" facts about life in the United States, Michigan, or the community which were mentioned in the questionnaire. • Describe two things you did with your partner during the project. • Describe what was your favorite or least favorite part of the project and explain why. • Analyze what was the need and explain why you believe the need was served or not served by the service learning project. • Use correct spelling, grammar, punctuation, and capitalization with three to five errors.
2	In order to receive a 2-point score, the response must:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Include one or two details to describe your partner in the service learning project. • List one or two "historic" facts about life in the United States, Michigan, or the community which were mentioned in the questionnaire. • Describe one thing you did with your partner during the project.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe what was your favorite or least favorite part of the project and but give no explanation. • Analyze what was the need and explain why you believe the need was served or not served by the service learning project. • Show problems with spelling, grammar, punctuation, and capitalization so as to distract the reader.
1	In order to receive a 1-point score, the response must:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Include an unclear description of your partner. • Relate only one or no "historic" fact about life in the United States, Michigan, or the community which were mentioned in the questionnaire. • Be missing two of the remaining elements. • Show so many problems with spelling, grammar, punctuation, and capitalization that it is very difficult to follow the student's point of view.
0	Response shows no evidence of any elements, or does not give evidence of an understanding of the concept.

