

On My Own Terms-Answer Key

free from favoritism and prejudice	fairness minimum conditions for human dignity entitled to ALL persons	human rights same treatment for same behavior	equality conforming to truth; carrying out the law or what is determined right by an impartial judge	justice citizens working to promote the well-being of the community by working together with others for the greater benefit of all	common good allowance and respect for the attributes of others that differ from one's own	tolerance giving of one's time, talent, or treasure for the sake of another or for the common good	philanthropy

