

People Who Made a Difference

“One person can make a difference, and everyone should try.” – President John Kennedy

- ➡ Who are some people that come to your mind that have made a difference in this world?

Now that you've listened to your classmates, reflect on what these people share in common.

There are many, but let's learn six:

- 1) SOCIAL JUSTICE
- 2) DIVERSITY
- 3) TOLERANCE
- 4) CIVIL RIGHTS
- 5) EQUALITY
- 6) PHILANTHROPY

- ➔ Social Justice means free and equal participation by ALL people in our communities and nation.
- ➔ It is fairness for ALL people and working to achieve that fairness.

Diversity

- There are many different types of people in this world, and these many differences create diversity.
- These differences can be in the way you look, the way you think, where you come from, and more.
- Diversity makes life more interesting.

Tolerance

- Tolerance is willingness to accept feelings, habits, or beliefs that are different from your own.
- This also means that you are open-minded about getting to know people who are different than you.

Civil Rights

- This comes from the Latin term, Civitas, meaning all citizens are banded together under the same law.
- ALL people have rights and are to be protected by the law.

Equality

- This means that ALL people have an equal chance to have a good life.
- This also means that ALL people have equal protection under the law and equal rights that will be honored.
- It does not mean all people get the same amount of money and resources.

Philanthropy

is when you use your time, talent, or treasure to improve the lives of others or make the world better.

► Unfortunately, the world doesn't always follow these words we've learned about.....That's why great people have worked to bring these things to the world. Let's learn about them!
