

Stereo What? Personal Opinion Survey

Directions: Put an X in the box that best describes your attitude toward each specific statement.

Statement:	Always	Usually	Sometimes	Rarely	Never
I am aware of the name brand of shoes my peers wear.
I often buy items I have seen advertised on TV.
I often buy items that my friends recommend.
It is not cool to get really good grades.
You are not cool if you are not involved in sports.
I am uncomfortable around people who are physically or mentally challenged.
Kids who like band are not cool.
I admire the really good athletes.
I admire the really good students.
There are only certain stores where I shop for my clothes.
People from other countries are very different from us.
Poor people are lazy.
Teachers are smarter than the students.
I care about another person's race.
People of other cultures interest me.
I judge people by their religion.
Boys are better athletes than girls.
Girls are smarter than boys.
Boys are more likely to get into trouble in school than girls.
I am uncomfortable around old people.
I stare at people who dress differently than I do.
I have teased other students because of their size.
Fat people are lazy.
People who shop at discount stores are poorer than people who shop at other stores.
I work harder and better when allowed to choose the group I work in.

