Philanthropic Acts of Kindness

Answer the following four questions as thoughtfully as possible. Discuss your answers with your parents/guardians. Have a parent or guardian sign below acknowledging that he/she has read and discussed this assignment with you.

1. Pick one philanthropic random act of kindness (small but meaningful) which you personally can carry out. List your choice below.

2. Why did you choose this particular act of kindness?

3. Who will benefit from your act of philanthropy?

4. Name something positive that you expect to learn or feel as a result of doing this random act of kindness.
