

Phil's Aunt Throws Peas: Religious Perspective

Yalkut Psalms 874

Acts of loving kindness are called life.

1 Corinthians 14:12

It's no different with you. Since you're so eager to participate in what God is doing, why don't you concentrate on doing what helps everyone in the church?

Muslim Theme:

Sahih Muslim, Hadith 496

The Prophet also said: "Every act of goodness is charity."

Al-Tirmidhi, Hadith 604

The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said: "The believer's shade on the Day of Resurrection will be his charity."

Processing Questions:

1. What did we learn about philanthropy through this game?
2. What were some things that people shared that you really liked?
3. Why should our life be made up of acts of loving-kindness?
4. How does God look at acts of philanthropy?
5. What is one way you could be a philanthropist that you learned from others in the group?

Muslim Perspective:

1. What protection does God give to a person who does charity? Why does God offer to protect those who do charity?
2. Why do you think that God promise believers that they will be rewarded for the charity?
3. If everyone in the community practiced charity, do you think God would make the whole community happier? What would that look like?
