

Question Sheet

Directions: Find a philanthropist or philanthropic organization that may be interested in your cause.

Refer to the Briefing Papers on the Learning to Give website

<http://www.learningtogive.org/teach/briefing-papers> or search on Guidestar.org or do a general Google search.

1. What is your issue area of concern?
2. What is the name of the potential foundation or individual who cares about this issue?
3. What are the goals of the organization?
4. Do the goals meet your cause?
5. How does the group or individual benefit others? Does it provide funding or services?
6. Would this group be interested in your cause? Explain.

