Reading Recollections

Ask one adult member of your family to share their reading experiences with you.

I asked _____________________________.

1. When and how did you learn to read?

2. What books were your very favorites when you were in elementary school?

3. Who helped you the most when you were learning to read?

4. Did you like to read aloud when the teacher called your name? Why?

5. When I was very, very young, what was my favorite story?
