

Reflection Piece Writing Assignment

Directions: Answer the following questions in short answer format. Be sure to use complete sentences and give examples where applicable.

1. What did you learn about philanthropy and do you feel that it is vital to your community?
2. What type of experience did you have when "searching" for a philanthropist? What will you remember the most about your experience?
3. If a group project, what part did you play in your group in the interviewing process? How did you participate differently than your group members? Did you feel that your group divided the work equally?
4. What effect did this philanthropy unit have on you as an individual? Do you think you are currently or will strive to become a philanthropist in the future?
5. What personal connection have you made to philanthropy? Think about all the different aspects we have discussed in the classroom (e.g., historical, modern, national, local, qualities, interview, presentations, etc.).
