

Reflection and Evaluation Questions

After participating in this experience, how do you view your role in the community?

Has your self-esteem changed? How?

What areas of your life do you control?

How does helping others (at home, at school, in the community) give you a sense of control or empowerment?

Why is it important to take action for the common good?

