

Research Guide

Research this information about your working animal. Create a multi-media presentation (using a poster or computer software) to share the information with others.

Type/breed of working animal

Description of the work he/she performs

Characteristics that make him/her especially suitable for the work

Special training required

Benefits to the person(s)

Needs of the working animal

