

Rights and Responsibilities Making the Connection

Reread the quote, "Each person's rights reach only to the boundaries of someone else's rights." Think of the responsibilities we each have to treat others and be treated in a way that protects our basic rights. Complete the chart below using words and illustrations.

| Basic Right           | Related Responsibilities | What is the state of this basic right when these responsibilities are carried out? | What is the state of this basic right when these responsibilities are NOT carried out? |
|-----------------------|--------------------------|--|--|
| Freedom of expression |                          |  |  |
| Freedom of religion   |                          |  |  |

| Basic Right           | Related Responsibilities | What is the state of this basic right when these responsibilities are carried out? | What is the state of this basic right when these responsibilities are NOT carried out? |
|-----------------------|--------------------------|--|--|
| To be treated equally |                          |  |  |
| To be treated fairly  |                          |  |  |
| To vote               |                          |  |  |

