

Rubric to Evaluate the Class Presentation

Four-point presentation

- All eight questions are thoroughly answered.
- The presentation is at least eight minutes long.
- There is effective use of the visual aid which adds to the class' understanding of the experience.
- All of the team's students participate in the presentation.

Three-point presentation

- Most of the questions are answered.
- The presentation is only seven minutes in length.
- The visual aid is included and is clear.
- Only two students of the team contribute to the presentation.

Two-point presentation

- Some of the questions are answered.
- The presentation is only five minutes in length.
- There is a visual aid.

One-point presentation

- Some questions are answered.
- The presentation is only three minutes in length.

