

Rubric for Historical Research

In order to receive a 4 point score, the learner must:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Research a historical institution that acted as an alternative power structure in American society to improve conditions for the common good.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Describe how the historical institution had global impact on the modern world.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Illustrate how this institution reacted to historic violations of human dignity involving discrimination, persecution, crimes against humanity, and how the institution reacted to them.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify benefits and challenges in the historical institution and how it related to diversity in American life.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Show how individual rights and the concept of democracy were important to the historical institution.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Using various means, present research findings in a presentation format.

In order to receive a 3 point score, the learner must:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Research a historical institution that acted as an alternative power structure in American society to improve conditions for the common good.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Describe how the historical institution had global impact on the modern world.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Illustrate how this institution reacted to historic violations of human dignity involving discrimination, persecution, crimes against humanity, and how the institution reacted to them.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Using various means, present research findings in a presentation format.

In order to receive a 2 point score, the learner must:

- Research a historical institution that acted as an alternative power structure in American society to improve conditions for the common good.
- Using various means, present research findings in a presentation format.

In order to receive a 1 point score, the learner must:

- Research a historical institution that acted as an alternative power structure in American society to improve conditions for the common good.

In order to receive a 0, the learner must:

- Show no evidence of knowledge of any of the above elements.

