

Rubric for Paragraph, Interview Notes and Application

Interview Notes and Application Rubric:

In order to earn	Description
5 points	All requirements are met as assigned.
4 points	One requirement is weak or incomplete.
3 points	Two requirements are weak or inaccurate.
2 points	Few requirements are met.
1 point	Very little effort to fulfill requirements.
0 points	Assignment not handed in.

Paragraph Rubric:

5 points In order to receive a 5-point score, the response must:

- name three sectors of the American economic system
- define a foundation
- give three examples of benefits derived from foundations
- give three historic examples of foundations and their beneficiaries in other countries
- name three American foundations give a reason for the growth of foundations, and
- identify a core democratic value that foundations support.

4 points In order to receive a 4-point score, the response must:

- Have one or two elements which are weak or incomplete.

3 points In order to receive a 3-point score, the response must:

1. Have three elements which are weak or incomplete.

2 points In order to receive a 2-point score, the response must:

- Have four elements which are weak or incomplete.

1 point In order to receive a 1-point score, the response must:

- Show very little effort to complete the requirements.

0 points In order to receive a 0-point score, the assignment must not have been attempted.

