Social Justice: A Personal Opinion

You are required to complete a two-page paper that identifies what you consider to be an injustice in our world, our community, or our school, today. The paper should include the following:

- Title of the social (human) injustice.
- Explain the impact of the injustice.
- The inclusion of visuals (pictures/charts/graphs/diagrams/photographs) are extra credit.
- Identify and conclude the paper with a solution or suggested method to correct this injustice.

Use the following check-list to aid in completing this paper:

1. Name the injustice
2. Describe the injustice.
3. Share why you consider this an injustice.
4. Identify any current actions that you are aware of that are being taken to correct this injustice and indicate why you think the action(s) is or is not sufficient to correct this injustice. If you feel current actions are not taking place or are not sufficient to correct the injustice, share your ideas about a possible solution.
5. Indicate what role, if any, you might be willing to personally take to correct this injustice.
6. If you have added pictures/visuals, indicate where you got them.
