

Taking on a Task

Cut apart the cards and give one to each group

Your group's task is to bake a meal for a family who has a sick parent or child. List all of the supplies you need and assign responsibilities to each group member. Describe how you will get or pay for resources and how you will arrange transportation, if needed. Set a timeline and describe how you know the results are successful.	Your group's task is to mow and trim the yard/weed the garden of an elderly neighbor. List all of the supplies you need and assign responsibilities to each group member. Describe how you will get or pay for resources and how you will arrange transportation, if needed. Set a timeline and describe how you know the results are successful.
Your group's task is to bake homemade dog treats and bring them to the Humane Society. List all of the supplies you need and assign responsibilities to each group member. Describe how you will get or pay for resources and how you will arrange transportation, if needed. Set a timeline and describe how you know the results are successful.	Your group's task is to clean up/beautify a neighborhood park. List all of the supplies you need and assign responsibilities to each group member. Describe how you will get or pay for resources and how you will arrange transportation, if needed. Set a timeline and describe how you know the results are successful.
Your group's task is to promote reading and literacy in an elementary classroom. List all of the supplies you need and assign responsibilities to each group member. Describe how you will get or pay for resources and how you will arrange transportation, if needed. Set a timeline and describe how you know the results are successful.	Your group's task is to design an anti-smoking campaign in the school. List all of the supplies you need and assign responsibilities to each group member. Describe how you will get or pay for resources and how you will arrange transportation, if needed. Set a timeline and describe how you know the results are successful.

