

Ten Character Traits

Integrity: true to who you are, following rules and being accountable to yourself, your school, and your community

Courage: taking on something difficult even if you are scared

Fairness: listening to different perspectives and cooperating to address needs and wants equitably

Caring: valuing others and treating them with kindness and respect

Honesty: being truthful and admitting when you are wrong

Perseverance: working hard toward a goal, keeping at something even when it gets long or difficult

Respect: treating others and their ideas as if they are worth your time, kindness, and attention, while still honoring what is important to you

Responsibility: accountable for your behavior and belongings

Self-Discipline: demonstrating control over your actions and emotions

Trustworthy: can be counted on to follow through

