The Paper: A Grading Rubric

A 5 point score:

- Identifies and explains, in depth, a legitimate social (human) injustice
- Provides thoughtful rationale for why this might be considered an injustice
- Identifies current actions that are being taken to address this injustice
- Shares a doable personal response to right the injustice
- Utilizes neatness, proper grammar, spelling, punctuation and organization of thoughts
- Utilizes pictures/photographs and/or charts/graphs to enhance the presentation

A 4 point scores:

- Identifies and explains a legitimate social (human) injustice
- Provides rationale for why this might be considered an injustice
- Identifies a current action that is being taken to address this injustice
- Shares a doable personal response to right the injustice
- Utilizes proper grammar, spelling, punctuation and organization of thoughts
- Utilizes a picture/photograph and/or a chart/graph to enhance the presentation

A 3 point score:

- Identifies a social (human) injustice
- Provides a rationale for why this might be considered an injustice
- Identifies a current action that is being taken to address this injustice
- Shares a personal response to right the injustice
- For the most part utilizes proper grammar, spelling, punctuation and organization of thoughts

There will not be a 2 or 1 point score awarded for this project.