

Unit Posttest Answer Key

1. The best example of an act of philanthropy is
 - c. lobbying for no smoking in all public meeting places.
2. A newspaper op-ed is a good resource for
 - d. reading a columnist's point of view on a current issue.
3. The process of interpreting personal feelings and impact of an experience is most often referred to as
 - e. reflecting.
4. A personal narrative most often contains
 - b. events and reflections.
5. Someone who gives time, talent or treasure for the common good is most appropriately referred to as
 - a. a philanthropist.
6. The first paragraph of a news article is structured to help the readers
 - d. decide whether to read the rest of the article.
7. Which type of news article contains a clear purpose, arguments, and supporting details?
 - c. op-ed
8. Which is an example of a revealing detail that shows rather than tells?
 - a. The sun burned my exposed neck.
9. What feature in the newspaper cannot report about philanthropy?
 - e. none of the above
10. Freedom of the Press ensures that newspapers
 - e. all of the above

