

"What Can I Do For You?" by Rick Kelley

Rick Kelley, a native Michigander and professional musician from Chicago, is known for his interactive music programs with college audiences and school-age kids. Rick has offered to share another of his delightful songs with our K-12 supporters. This selection, "What Can I Do For You," is from Rick's collection of the same name. In the next few issues of For the Common Good, we'll feature songs from this collection. If you'd like to order a CD, tape, or songbook with study guides for the entire collection — or if you're interested in booking Rick for a live performance — contact Deborah at Kelley Entertainment (630) 513-6134, or e-mail rksings@aol.com

What Can I Do For You by Rick Kelley

J=100

1. Peo - ple won't al - ways ask for fav - ors.
 2. times their pride won't let them show it.
 3. find out when you ask that ques - tion.
 4. does -n't have to be a big deed.

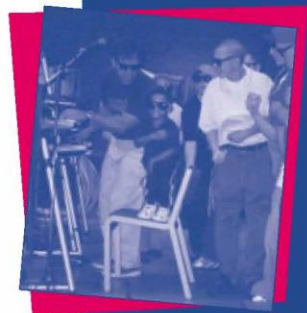

Peo - ple don't al - ways re - quest a help - ing hand. Some - but when you look at their sad faces you know it. Some - Peo - ple smile and say their sad faces thank you for ask - in'. Just be What's small to you may be huge to some - one else.

1. & 3.
 times we have to let them know just that we're a - vail - a - ble.
 times the best way to find out is Then they let their hearts pour out and that's what help is all a - bout rea - dy to do an - y task the

2. & 4.
 Some in a friend - ly voice you ask them
 It door is o - pen when you ask them

"What Can I Do For You"

Song No. 5: What Can I Do For You

Chorus:

What (What) can I do for you? — Tell me what (What)

17 18 19 20 21

can I — can I do for you — If we're will - ing and a - ble there's plen - ty for us — to do — Just ask what (What)

22 23 24 25

26 27 28 29

can I — do — for you — You'll

30 31 32 33 34

