

You and Me and G-d Make three!...Cause and Because

Beginning with Chapter 1 (verse 26) of the Book of Genesis: The Beginning, we are given a divine idea of how we came to be.

"And G-d said, 'Let us create man in our image, after our likeness'."

The questions about the passage are much longer than the verse itself!

While there are many Jewish G-d ideas, something that we DON'T believe is that G-d has human form. So, what could this verse possible mean? What was the Creator saying about this Creation?

Imagine that you had an opportunity for an interview with the Creator! Sharpen your questioning skills and develop your two best questions for G-d about Genesis 1:26.

Write them here:

The logistics for the interview seem impossible to arrange!

Therefore, consider your questions and what you believe about the answers and complete the following:

I think that being created in the image of G-d means that we...

Jewish believing is about DOING Jewish. Because we believe that we are all created in G-d's image, I believe that should cause us to do the following:
