

Interview Worksheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

One partner starts by asking the other partner these questions, then listening and writing the responses on this sheet. In three minutes, switch jobs and the second partner will ask these questions. IMPORTANT: In your examples, do not mention names of specific people because it could hurt their feelings. Then each partner gets a minute to reflect.

1. How do you like to be treated when you are playing a game with a friend? Give an example of when you were treated this way.

2. How do you like to be treated when you are working on a project with a partner? Give an example of when you were treated this way.

3. How do you like to be treated when you are playing with the entire class at recess? Give an example of when you were treated this way.

4. Give at least one example of something that you don't think people should do to their friends.

5. Give at least one example of something that you think people should do more of to their friends.

